MUCH ENTERTAINING DONE

Latter Part of Month Will See Summer Season On in Full Swing at Famous Resort—Many Buildings Have Historic Touch.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. VA., May 13.—The latter part of May will see the beginning of the cottage life that is one of the most attractive features of White Sulphur Springs through the summer months. Around the outskirts of the spacious, rolling lawns of The Greenbrier and The White, set with century-old shade trees, clusters the cottage colony in the famous Baltimore, Alabama, Florida and Texas Rows that attracted the aristocracy of the South to the resort before the Civil War. Many of the cottages are historic, having housed a number of Presidents, and most of the stay-at-home beauties of the South in their day. Some still have the old Southern "balcony" and all are kept up to a high standard of repair and comfort, and with their awning-shaded verandas furnished as outdoor sitting rooms with rugs, chairs, couches and gayly colored cushions, and backed by the Alleghenies, clothed in a luxuriance of verdure, they offer tempting retreats for the summer months.

Richmonders Make Reservations.

Even at this date nearly all are taken. Mr. and Mrs. James B. Weir, of New York and Charleston, have leased a cottage in Baltimore Row from May 15 until the middle of October. Mrs. George Ehret, of New York, has taken the Hawley Cottage, one of the more modern ones. Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Stebbins, of New York, who occupied a cottage last year, are expected again. Mrs. Charles Fowler, Jr., of Montclair, has leased the Casino Cottage. Mrs. J. K. Weir, of Wilmington, N. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lewis, of St. Augustine, the latter a niece of the late Mrs. Henry M. Flagler, will have the Colonnade, and others have been taken by Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Hotchkiss, Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Buckner Wall, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Scott, Mrs. Thomas Rutherford and Mrs. M. C. Branch, of Richmond; Mrs. De Lanoy Thom and Mrs. Melton C. Elliott, of Baltimore; Edward Morris, of Chicago; Mrs. A. P. Witte, of Louisville; Mrs. W. G. Mortland, of Pittsburgh; John D. Douglas, of New Orleans; J. E. Smithman, of Shreveport, La.; Mrs. W. F. H. Lee and Judge and Mrs. Milton Elliott, of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Payne, Mrs. Horace H. Mahr and W. H. Hollister.

Bankers Meet.

The annual spring meeting of the executive council of the American Bankers' Association met at The Greenbrier this week. About 200 members were in attendance, representing leading banking interests in every large city in the country. Addresses were given by D. H. Farnham, president of the National City Bank, of Chicago, and by J. J. H. Howard, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation. A golf tournament with a men's championship, several events for women, and indoor and outdoor putting contests were features of the week. The bankers enjoyed one evening of water sports in the pool. At their annual dinner Thursday night Thomas B. McDoom, vice-president of the Merchants National Bank, Richmond, was toastmaster, and the speakers included John J. Cornwell, Governor of West Virginia; Judge Charles F. Moore and Dr. Alexander Irvine.

Some of those in attendance have been Charles H. Sablin, F. H. Sisson, Henry Rogers Winthrop, F. N. Shepherd, C. R. Parker, W. E. Hardy, F. D. Loken, W. Fitzsimon, Frank L. Hilton, Theodore G. Smith, James E. Clark, L. N. Gannon, B. L. Battle, E. W. Kennedy, Raymond J. Barnes, George Sherwood, C. G. Service, E. M. Curran, L. D. Woodworth, Gordon Edwards, George E. Allen, F. K. Houston, D. A. Mullen, Thomas J. Hoskins, David C. Moss, F. S. Bruns, Arthur K. Kuhn, L. H. Merriam and Richard W. Hill, of New York; Charles L. Schenck, of Brooklyn; M. H. McCarter, of Red Bank; Edward S. Bartlett, of Atlantic City; N. A. T aylor, H. D. H. Miller and Walter Liebenstein, of Chicago; L. H. Kemper, of Galveston, Tex.; F. B. Cork, Salt Lake City; F. J. Dennison, Denver; Robert E. McElvly and C. A. Hirsch, Cincinnati; Mr. Hotchkiss and Thomas G. Hennings, St. Louis; W. A. Law and H. J. Haas, Philadelphia; W. E. Mellon, Montreal; J. L. Stines, Richmond; Louis Betz, St. Paul; Oscar Wells, Birmingham, Ala.; L. H. Roseberry, Los Angeles, and R. Preston, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Jerome J. Hanauer, member of the New York banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., entertained Henry Tamm, vice-president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and Mrs. Tamm, and J. R. McAllister, president of the Franklin National Bank, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. McAllister, at The Greenbrier the middle of the week. His guests came over from Hot Springs in Mr. Tamm's private car.

Dr. Houghton Entertains.
Rev. Dr. George Clark Houghton, rector of the Church of the Transfiguration, New York, gave a May party a few days ago for the school children of one of the near-by mountain communities, in whom he is interested. With his daughter, Mrs. Charles A. L. Strombom, of New York, he motored four miles to the little mountain schoolhouse, filling his car with ice cream, cakes and candies and souvenirs of all descriptions, and himself presided over the party in the schoolhouse yard. The community is one in which Dr. Houghton has been interested for several years, and he is in the habit of remembering the children substantially at Christmas time.

Mr. and Mrs. Leeds Mitchell, of Chicago, gave a large luncheon at Kate's Mountain Club this week, having among their guests Mrs. Joseph E. Widener and Mrs. Benjamin Reath, of Philadelphia; William F. Hill, of Washington, and Dr. John Freeland.

Miss Margaret Prescott Montague, of Boston, the writer, who has a

LINENS—MAIN FLOOR

Reminiscent of the Costumes of Ancient Greece, are theseDraped Canton Frocks for Summer Wear!

EVINCING a simplicity that is deceiving, these silken frocks conceal their particular beauty beneath flowing grace. With becoming neck and shoulder lines, with side drapings caught at the hip, with full-flowing sleeves that admit all sorts of possibilities—and with any number of other innovations—this is indeed an unusually attractive group of summertime costumes.

AND here, too, one finds true value, for every frock is of a quality and character that designates it a real opportunity. Models for miss and matron, in colors suitable for most every occasion.

The Smartness of New Summer Woolens is exemplified in
"IVORY TINT"

THIS is to be a season of White, or as near white as possible, and the latest color development is a delightful tone that we are pleased to call "Ivory Tint." Already it has found favor in fashionable resorts and watering places, and we predict an equal popularity for it in Richmond.
